RE: Legal Opinion Regarding Vacating Ex-Officio Board Position

As discussed, there is no need to have administrative staff serve as non-voting, ex-officio members of a board, and such appointments can lead to issues involving the Sunshine Law. Following consultation with the City Manager, and in an abundance of caution, the following non-voting, ex-officio board positions currently occupied by City staff are hereby vacated until such time as the positions can be formally eliminated through amendment to the Zoning Code:

Planning and Zoning Board (Zoning Code, Section 2-202(A)(1))
Board of Adjustment (Zoning Code, Section 2-401(A)(1))

The administrative staff members who previously held non-voting, ex-officio board positions may continue to serve as staff to the boards, and may continue to speak at board meetings when recognized by the chair, but no longer possess a formal position on the board.
